For the first time in the FIFA franchise, players can experience an official soundtrack written by some of the world's greatest artists. FIFA 20's music includes tracks by Jay Z, Drake, Elio, The Chainsmokers, Fatboy Slim and Young Thug. Starting with a different set of rules and gameplay, FIFA 20 introduces a number of improvements and changes that will affect the overall game experience. New Features and Improvements New Commentary FIFA 20 introduces a brand-new commentary team, so you'll hear new voices, new delivery, and more in-depth analysis of the action on and off the field. You'll hear expanded personal opinions from the broadcasters and unique perspectives from individual game mode commentators for the first time in the FIFA franchise. Tracking FIFA 20 now allows players to track the ball in real time during all game modes, in all game modes except for Player Impact, Player Skills, and Player Impact on Player Skills. New Game Experience Players can now experience the sights and sounds of the new game modes right from the game menu. Use Player Passes to fire passes in a variety of directions, and watch the ball follow the intended receiver's route as the ball travels.
