Overloud's R2R release, which was a mainstay for developers for two decades, was designed to be the most comprehensive free library of Chorus and VSC signal processing, with a strong focus on nuance and the process. Fried BE50D is the TH-U expansion library, created by Choptones. If you are using Windows 10, the Overloud TH-U app will link up with a new, customized experience. When you launch TH-U, your settings will have to be synced to the application manually. TH-U is also available as a portable app, but not as much as a desktop application. Finally, TH-U for Windows needs you to do it manually (over USB, for example), but will work just fine. Overloud TH-U SuperCabinet runs as VST, AU and AAX on macOS (10.9 or later) and Windows (7, 8, 10). Instructions can be found as a PDF on the product website. Until 31May 2021, there is an introductory price of 49 euros, after which it will go back up to the usual 79 euros. But if you already own TH-U Premium, you won't have to pay anything and can get it for free.
