For months, we've been waiting for a flipbook to arrive in our mailbox. A few days ago, it finally arrived. I quickly scanned through the pages to see if something interesting happened. I was wrong. One page shows the iPhone 7 in red and black, and a few pages underneath has the iPhone 7 in gold and silver and white. Okay, the page doesn't tell you the color, but it's an obvious clue. We've reported about the possibility of the iPhone 7 in red before, and now I'm wondering if the iPhone 8 will follow suit. I'm also curious about the iPhone 7 and iPhone 7s. The page suggests that we'll see the upcoming iPhones in a range of colors. We'll have to wait

The second main story of Mystic Destinies: Serindipity of Aeons, this is a story of a childhood friend and a girl who shares a powerful connection. In Mystic Destinies: Serindipity of Aeons, players will have to take part in a challenge between Takumi, a boy in high school, and Tsubasa, a girl in her 20s, who share a true friendship. This is a story about their developing relationship after meeting each other as children. Takumi was raised by Professor Yasu, the brother of Tsubasa, and he went to high school in a town called Neodream. Takumi is a brave and charismatic boy, almost too brash for his own good. He is a regular at parties and loves to spend time with his friends. But he has a secret: he has been missing a few days' worth of memories. On a chance meeting with Tsubasa after this "missing time", Takumi meets a beautiful girl, Tsubasa. Takumi and Tsubasa together try to solve a puzzling case, hunting for clues within the fantasy world of Aoi, which seems to be experiencing a massive cataclysm. From the neighboring town of Kasunodoma, Tsubasa went to visit the school where Takumi had been attending since he was a child. Tsubasa asks Takumi to go with her, but he refuses, and ends up seeing her off at the train station. Tsubasa sets off in search of Takumi with nothing but her high school uniform on. Takumi is a complete opposite of Tsubasa. Whenever Tsubasa gets excited, she rushes her speech, but with Takumi, everything's peaceful and deliberate. When Tsubasa takes on a serious fight, Takumi tries to calm her down or diffuse the situation. He may be a bit to the right for her taste, but he also helps her out in case she needs it. Tsubasa and Takumi are surrounded by different struggles: the mafia is after them, and so are the rumors about Tsubasa being a vampire. Who is she really? What is the secret? These are just some of the questions that Takumi will face as he's drawn into Tsubasa's world, and we will try to find the answers to them all as he travels through the world of Aoi. What's new in Mystic Destinies: Serendipity Of Aeons - Takumi:

Sakamoto I have discussed two aspects of mystery portals in SE of aeons, namely the question whether one can traverse a mystery portal by any means or if it is an idyllic destiny of aeons for a Seeker to enter such a portal. The first paper covered the subject of Seeker entering the portal, while the second paper covered what a Seeker sees when he or she passes through this portal. Let's start with the second aspect and then move to the first in a logical manner. For me, this paper addresses two questions. The first one is what is necessary for Seeker to enter the portal? Second is, what do such as Seeker see as he or she passes through this portal? In the early analysis of mystery portal, I illustrated many cases of "other-worldly beings" that enticed takumi to give himself into the mystery portal for them when he was in the Seeker world (aka Aleph world). I deemed it logical for me to see such "Beings of a mystery" as the Demon Star Gods in the subject cosmic entity circles - a projection of the universe across various time scales. As a summary, the above illustration contains seven types of occult entities that most likely present in the mystery portal. This implies that seven types of mystic destinies are presented when the Seeker passes through the portal and only five seekers are intended. The seven mystic destinies are presented in graphic form here. 7. The mystery portal leads Seeker to be possessed by evil force. The Seeker is inside the new world, but has nobody there to greet them. They get there after going through a long journey - which means that Seeker has passed through a portal to reach the new world. They walked up to this portal sometimes, and they saw things that a Seeker cannot see while on their world. Such a thing gets more likely when the Seeker is a Teima Shikimen (Heavenly time). This means that he comes from time of a prior aeon. This is also verified by the Seeker's characteristics where he/she is vibrant, unusually energetic and the aeonic ring gets bigger when the Seeker first enters the mystery portal. This all displays that they are possessed by such evil entities that we associate with today's existence. 6. Those appearing in the portal either have disfigured appearance or their features have been blurred. We are
